Licenses for sexually oriented businesses shall be governed by Chapter 5.17, licenses for massage establishments shall be governed by Chapter 5.18; and tattoo and/or body piercing establishments shall be governed by Chapter 5.19.  - 2. During the hold period, the scrap metal dealer shall not release, or dispose of, the property subject to the hold.
 - 3. When a law enforcement official requires possession of the property for the purposes of the investigation, upon reasonable notice the scrap metal dealer shall produce the property at reasonable times and places or may deliver the property to a law enforcement official who is a member of the agency conducting the investigation. The official shall issue a receipt for the property to the scrap metal dealer providing the same information that identifies the property on the hold notice.
 - 4. If a scrap metal dealer believes that a hold has been wrongfully imposed, a written appeal of such hold may be filed within seven business days with the chief of police who will issue a written decision with seventy-two (72) hours of the receipt of the appeal, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. The decision from the chief of police shall constitute the town's final and binding decision regarding the hold imposed.
 - 5. A law enforcement official of the same agency shall release the hold on the property and/or return the property to the scrap metal dealer when it is no longer required for the investigation within seven days of the conclusion of the case, or sooner if possible.
 - 6. If the law enforcement official has knowledge that the property has been reported stolen, the enforcement agency shall give written notice to the victim who reported the property stolen and issue a written notification releasing the hold, advising the victim that the law neither requires or prohibits payment of a fee or any other condition in return for the surrender of the property. A copy of this notification, with the name and address of the victim deleted shall be delivered to the dealer holding the property. If no action is taken to recover the property within sixty (60) days of the issuance of the notification to the victim, the scrap dealer in possession of the property may treat the property as if it was regularly acquired in the due course of business.

- K. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, the business license of any scrap metal dealer found to be in violation of this title shall be subject to the provisions, pertaining to denial, suspension or revocation of a business license, as set forth in Chapter 5.04 of this title.
