

Legal Arizona Workers Act Compliance

In accordance with Arizona Revised Statute § 41-1080 (Licensing eligibility; authorized presence; documentation; applicability; definitions), an agency or political subdivision of this State shall not issue a license to an individual if the individual does not provide documentation of citizenship or alien status by presenting documentation indicating that the individual's presence in the United States is authorized by law. This form is required for an individual or sole proprietor only.

Check the box next to the document indicating lawful presence and provide a copy of the front and back of the document with your business license application.

	An Arizona driver license issued after 1996 or an Arizona non-operating identification license.
	A driver license issued by a state that verifies lawful presence in the United States. (See Overview of States' Driver's License Requirements)
	A birth certificate or delayed birth certificate issued in any state, territory or possession of the United States.
	A United States certificate of birth abroad.
	A United States passport.
	A foreign passport with a United States visa.
	An I-94 form with a photograph.
	A United States citizenship and immigration services employment authorization document or refugee travel document.
	A United States certificate of naturalization.
	A United States certificate of citizenship.
	A tribal certificate of Indian blood.
	A tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs affidavit of birth.

This provision does not apply to an individual, if either:

1. BOTH of the following apply:
 - a. The individual is a citizen of a foreign country or, if at the time of application, the individual resides in a foreign country.
 - b. The benefits that are related to the license do not require the individual to be present in the United States in order to receive those benefits.

OR
2. ALL of the following apply:
 - a. The individual is a resident of another state.
 - b. The individual holds an equivalent license in that other state and the equivalent license is of the same type being sought in this state.
 - c. The individual seeks the Arizona license to comply with this state's licensing laws and not to establish residency in this state.

I hereby certify, under penalty of perjury, that the copy of the document I am providing is a true and accurate copy of the original document and that I am legally authorized to be present in the United States.
